Under the model, the Della Group pools land from the land owner and in exchange it conceptualises, designs, develops, and does the sales and marketing of the project. The company charges a fee from the landowner on a project-to-project basis.

"Out of the total GDV that we have in the pipeline, we will be getting around 15% of fees for the project," said Jimmy Mistry, founder and chairman of Della Group.

Della Group was founded in 1991 by Jimmy Mistry, initially focusing on pest control. This entrepreneurial journey expanded into interior contracting in 1993 and modular office furniture in 1995. In 1997, the company established a furniture manufacturing facility in Daman, a Union Territory near South Gujarat.

The Group ventured into real estate in 2005, and in 2009, it expanded into the hospitality industry with the opening of Della Resort near Lonavala.

IPO plans

Della Group announced in February 2025 that it plans to launch an Initial Public Offering (IPO) in the coming months. The funds raised from the IPO will be used for further business expansion. Speaking with reporters on October 27, Mistry said, "We are also aiming to come out with an IPO soon. This may take time; however, we are looking for something around 2027."
